

SHARCNET awards $74,000 for Digital Humanities

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 27, 2009

The Shared Hierarchical Academic Research Computing Network (SHARCNET) is pleased to announce the results of the Round I competition for SHARCNET Digital Humanities Fellowships.

SHARCNET is awarding $74,000 in cash and technical resources as follows:

Researcher	Institution	Department	Award
Kris Inwood	Guelph	History	$39,000
Marcello Guarini	Windsor	Philosophy	$35,000

Along with matching contributions of $30,000 provided by the researchers and/or their home institution, the total investment for these two projects is over $100,000.

SHARCNET wishes to acknowledge Hewlett Packard and Silicon Graphics for their financial contributions which support this very important research program.

About the SHARCNET Digital Humanities Fellowships Program

This is a new SHARCNET research support program, initially being run as a pilot. The objectives are: to allow researchers from the Digital Humanities and Arts communities to undertake projects of exceptional promise that leverage the HPC resources and infrastructure of SHARCNET; and to increase the interaction and integration between the Digital Humanities and Arts communities and the traditional HPC disciplines in the use of SHARCNET's resources and infrastructure.

Applications are evaluated through a peer review process by the SHARCNET Resource Allocation Committee, which includes representatives from across disciplines from the SHARCNET partner institutions.
